CONFIDENTIALITY AND PROTECTIVE ORDER

Upon the application of defendant Columbia University in open court, and upon hearing from both sides, pursuant to Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and good cause appearing therefor, it is hereby

ORDERED that:

1. All documents turned over to plaintiff in connection with this action (and its predecessor action before the New York State Division of Human Rights), and the information contained in such documents, shall be treated by plaintiff as confidential and shall be used only in connection with plaintiff's prosecution of his claim against Columbia. The documents and information may be shared by plaintiff with persons who may be advising or assisting him in connection with the prosecution of this action but, if the documents and information are so shared, such persons must be informed of and agree to be bound by the terms of this Order.

2. The last known addresses, telephone numbers or other contact information supplied by Columbia to plaintiff may be utilized by him, as necessary, only for the purpose of contacting persons for whom such information was supplied, as potential witnesses, either before or during trial. Plaintiff will only contact those persons for that limited purpose by written correspondence or by telephone between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 9:30 p.m.
